

Jaquelin Joseph

MULTIDISCIPLINARY VISUAL ARTIST | EDUCATOR | AUTHOR

New Orleans, Louisiana | jaquelin.com | finefunkyart@gmail.com

ARTIST PROFILE

Jaquelin Joseph is a New Orleans-based multidisciplinary visual artist whose practice moves across abstract painting, mixed media, assemblage, bronze sculpture, photography, writing, and functional art. Through saturated color, layered surfaces, fabric, wood, and found materials, her work explores memory, identity, Black womanhood, ancestry, belonging, resilience, and transformation.

SELECTED ARTWORK

Bloodlines: Still We Rise	Mixed-media assemblage	24 x 36 in
We Built Anyway	Mixed media on canvas	30 x 40 in
Roots Remember	Wood, bark, roots, and found materials	12 x 16 x 3 in
What Remains Untranslated	Mixed media on canvas	30 x 40 in
Solar Push	Acrylic on canvas	30 x 30 in
Katrina	Cloth on wood, c. 2006	15 x 31 in
The Body Holds	Mixed-media relief assemblage	30 x 30 in

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Art Instructor | Jefferson Parish Parks & Recreation, Gretna, Louisiana | 2025-Present

Develops and teaches hands-on visual-art experiences for children using painting, drawing, collage, mixed media, and found materials.

Founder and Gallery Director | Abstrax Arts Gallery & Photography Studio, San Diego, California

Founded and operated an independent gallery and photography studio, creating space for artists, collectors, exhibitions, and community engagement.

Professional Artist and Independent Author

Creates original artwork, books, functional art, and artist-designed products while managing exhibitions, publishing, branding, and public outreach.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts in Fine Arts | University of New Orleans

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS

Soulful Chickpeas | Bizarre Coloring Book | Single Mother's Survival Guide | The Door You Don't See | Between Fear and Forgiveness

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Painting | Mixed Media | Assemblage | Bronze Sculpture | Photography | Found-Material Art | Arts Education | Writing and Independent Publishing